FROM OUR PRESIDENT TIERRA A. DORSEY

*Dear Friends of Central Scholarship,
As we close another extraordinary year, I am overwhelmed with gratitude and pride for all we have accomplished together. Central Scholarship remains a beacon of opportunity, empowering students across Maryland to dream boldly, achieve their goals, and shape brighter futures.*

This year, we embarked on the transformative Torch of Opportunity Campaign—an initiative designed to expand scholarship access, strengthen financial literacy programs, and secure our long-term sustainability. Thanks to your unwavering support, we have amplified our impact, creating new opportunities, fostering meaningful connections, and uplifting lives through education.

Here are just a few highlights of what your generosity made possible:

- Expanded scholarships and career training opportunities: More students now have the financial resources to pursue their dreams, whether through higher education or specialized training programs.
- Enhanced financial literacy initiatives: We equipped students with the knowledge and tools to manage their finances, reduce debt, and plan for their futures with confidence.
- Strengthened our foundation for future growth: We laid the groundwork to ensure Central Scholarship can continue serving future generations with the same resilience and dedication that has defined our mission for over 100 years.

This year also marked a milestone as we celebrated our Centennial Anniversary. One of the highlights was our Centennial Gala, where our community came together to reflect on our legacy and celebrate the transformative power of education. The excitement and energy shared by everyone in attendance were truly inspiring, showcasing the collective passion for our mission and the students we serve.

Reflecting on this incredible legacy, we honor the generations of scholarship recipients, donors, community partners, and volunteers who have propelled our mission forward. Your support has been the cornerstone of our success, and for that, we are profoundly grateful.

As we look to the future, our commitment to innovation and student success remains steadfast. Together, we will expand our reach, deepen our programs, and continue transforming lives through the power of education.

Thank you for being an essential part of our journey. Your belief in our mission fuels our work, and your generosity inspires hope and opportunity for thousands of students each year.

With heartfelt appreciation,

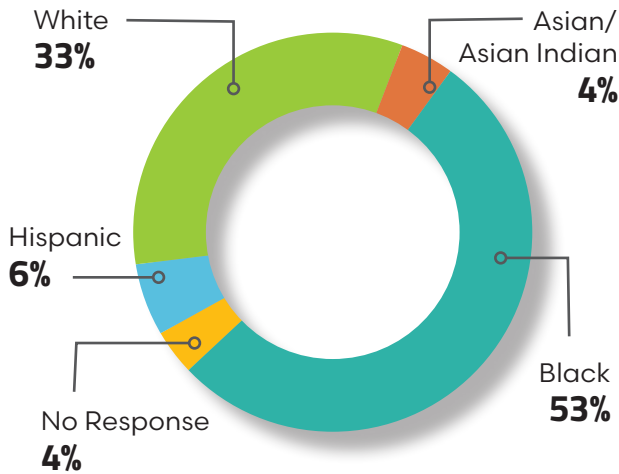

PRESIDENT

TORCH OF OPPORTUNITY

As Central Scholarship celebrates its Centennial Anniversary, we are proud to launch The Torch of Opportunity Campaign. This bold initiative, with its potential to shape the future of education in Maryland, is a source of inspiration and hope.

This campaign represents a transformative journey to ignite student opportunities and ensure their success today and tomorrow. It's a beacon for the next generation, designed to empower students through scholarships, financial literacy, and long-term sustainability.

THE TORCH OF OPPORTUNITY CAMPAIGN IS DRIVEN BY THREE CORE GOALS

Ignite Tomorrow

Amplify Scholarship Awards

We are unwavering in our commitment to significantly increase scholarship availability, ensuring more Maryland students have access to the financial resources they need to pursue higher education and achieve their academic dreams. By empowering more students to succeed, we can help secure a brighter tomorrow for all.

Ignite Education

Financial Literacy for All

Students will gain the skills to make informed financial decisions through financial literacy programs. These programs are designed to help students manage debt, budget effectively, and plan for their financial future. By equipping students with financial knowledge, we set them on a path to long-term success.

Ignite Support

Operational Sustainability

To continue supporting students for generations to come, Central Scholarship must remain operationally sustainable. This means investing in infrastructure, technology, and development to ensure we can operate more efficiently, serve more students, and remain a reliable resource for Maryland families.

BE THE SPARK – CHANGE A LIFE!

Every dollar counts – Let's light the torch of opportunity for the next century!

What inspired you to join the Central Scholarship board?

I was familiar with Central Scholarship's (CS) mission, but it wasn't until I attended my first Student Awards Ceremony that I felt compelled to get more involved. Seeing the organization's commitment to making higher education accessible and witnessing firsthand the impact on students was inspiring. The gratitude of scholarship recipients, the dedication of the staff, and the success stories of past scholars made it clear—this is an organization making a real difference, and I wanted to be a part of it.

Do you have a personal connection to the mission of making education more accessible?

Over the years, I've met many bright individuals whose potential was shaped by their access—or lack thereof—to education. One person I remember well came from a farming family and, despite his intelligence and work ethic, never had the financial means for higher education. I often wonder how far he could have gone if he had the same opportunities I did. On the other hand, I know a young man who, through scholarships and sheer determination, overcame incredible obstacles to complete college and graduate school. His success not only changed his life but uplifted his entire family. Stories like these reinforce why access to education matters.

What sets Central Scholarship apart from other organizations?

Central Scholarship takes a holistic approach to supporting students. It's not just about awarding scholarships—it's about ensuring students have the tools to succeed. From financial literacy workshops to no-interest loans and an engaged alumni network, CS invests in students beyond tuition, increasing their chances of long-term success.

How have you seen Central Scholarship make a difference in the lives of students?

All one needs to do it to go to the CS website and watch some of the videos. CS should be incredibly proud of the many success stories. CS has successfully helped so many individuals to reach their dreams of becoming teachers, doctors, lawyers, engineers, and, of course, at least one legendary and entertaining actor, André De Shields.

BOARD MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

David Daneman
Vice Chair

In your time on the board, what accomplishment are you most proud of?

Expanding our reach to provide more scholarships and grants for trade school students. Not every path to success requires a traditional four-year degree, and I'm proud that we're helping students pursue careers in high-demand trades.

How has Central Scholarship made a difference in students' lives?

The impact is undeniable. Just visit the CS website and watch the student testimonials—teachers, doctors, engineers, and even actors, all thriving because of the support they received. These stories highlight the life-changing power of education.

What excites you most about Central Scholarship's future?

The growth potential. The need for financial assistance in education has never been greater, and with the leadership of President Dorsey, CS is well-positioned to expand its reach and impact even more students in the years ahead.

What role does education play in transforming individuals and communities?

Education has a ripple effect. When one person gains access to education, it doesn't just change their life—it impacts their family and community. It creates financial stability, fosters innovation, and opens doors for future generations.

Why is Central Scholarship's work important today?

The rising cost of higher education has made college unattainable for many. With limited government aid, students are often left with high-interest loans that can burden them for years. CS provides a path forward, ensuring students can focus on their education without the weight of overwhelming debt.

How has being involved with Central Scholarship impacted you personally?

It's incredibly inspiring to hear students' stories—young people overcoming challenges, pursuing their passions, and building their futures. Their determination gives me hope for the next generation.

Is there a student success story that stands out to you?

One that resonates with me is a young man I met who became an electrician. His pride in achieving his goal is evident, and his gratitude to CS is touching. But the real impact isn't just in the thanks—it's in the life he's built for himself. His story is a testament to why this work matters.

What would you say to someone considering donating or getting involved with Central Scholarship?

You will always receive more than you give. Your support has a tangible impact—helping students to achieve their dreams and build successful futures. Every dollar is well spent, and the results speak for themselves.

What are your hopes for Central Scholarship in the next 5–10 years?

I hope to see our endowment grow and our corporate partnerships expand. The more sustainable our funding, the more energy we can put into helping students, ensuring future generations have the opportunities they deserve.

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

MACKENZIE WENCZKOWSKI

At Central Scholarship’s Centennial Gala, I was the lucky winner of their loan paydown award!

My name is Mackenzie Wenczkowski, but most people call me Mac. I am from Mount Airy, Maryland, and I have a younger brother and sister. My journey to where I am today would not have been possible without the support of Central Scholarship, whose generosity lifted a financial burden I never thought I could overcome.

I attended South Carroll High School, where I played lacrosse, soccer, and basketball and was actively involved in extracurricular activities such as the National Honor Society and Ski Club. From a young age, I worked hard to build a future for myself, but as my senior year of high school approached, my dreams of higher education felt further out of reach. My family had always planned for college, but everything changed when my dad was diagnosed with cancer and lost his job. We lost our home, and the college savings my parents had set aside for me and my siblings disappeared.

Suddenly, I had to figure out how to afford college on my own. I worked multiple jobs, applied for every scholarship I could find, and still had to take out loans to finance my education. It was overwhelming, but Central Scholarship stepped in at a critical moment, providing the support I needed to stay on track and pursue my degree without the crushing weight of student debt.

I began my college journey at Mercer University in Macon, Georgia, where I played NCAA Division I lacrosse. After a year, I transferred to the University of South Carolina in Columbia, where I pursued a Bachelor of Science in Biomedical Engineering. Throughout my time at USC, I remained deeply involved in campus life, playing club lacrosse and dedicating time to Children’s Miracle Network Hospitals through the USC Dance Marathon. Despite working full-time at restaurants and interning at a medical device company, finances were always a struggle. I also took on additional responsibilities, such as coaching lacrosse at a local high school, to support myself and my family.

Thanks to Central Scholarship’s incredible support, I was able to complete my undergraduate education and graduate in May 2022. Their generosity didn’t just help me earn my degree—it shaped my future. Without the burden of overwhelming student loans, and now I am free to focus on my career and give back to those around me.

After graduation, I began working as a Sales Engineer at Rohde & Schwarz in July 2022. I love what I do, and I’m grateful that Central Scholarship helped make this possible. Now that my loans are paid off, I can also support my siblings as they pursue their own college degrees and even help my mom go back to school. The impact of Central Scholarship has extended far beyond just my life—it has given my entire family new opportunities.

Outside of my career, I continue to stay active in the lacrosse community, coaching for M&D Lacrosse Club, where I once played, and working as a pet sitter. I love being outdoors, running, playing pickleball, skiing, traveling, trying new restaurants, cooking, and reading.

I will always be grateful to Central Scholarship for believing in me and investing in my future. Their support changed my life, and one day, I hope to give back to my community in the same way they have given to me.
